This Christmas season has flown by and it has been so much fun watching the kid's excitement. They have really enjoyed talking about the birth of baby Jesus. I often times find the kids playing "Mary and baby Jesus" and "Santa" in our kitchen center. I hope that you all can have a "somewhat" relaxing Christmas break with your kids. Don't forget to sprinkle the magic reindeer dust on your lawn on Christmas Eve! :)

This week we...

- Created Christmas wreaths with paint and stickers
- Made magic reindeer dust!!
- Glued together an adorable penguin
- Read the book Wonder, colored a picture, and talked about how we all may look different but are equally as special
- Had a blast at our Christmas party!! Thanks room moms! We decorated Christmas cookies, listened to music, and got a little present

Here are some special events and reminders...

- Christmas Vacation- December 25th-January 7th
- Pizza Day- January 11th
- No School- January 15th

I hope you all have a very merry Christmas!!
